Capital Needs Across The Business Lifecycle in the Good Food System

BRIDGE CAPITAL

This funding bridges the gap between an organization's current financing and the next level of financing.

MEZZANINE CAPITAL

Also known as expansion capital, this is funding to help your company grow to the next level, purchase bigger and better equipment, or move to a larger facility.

START-UP CAPITAL

Start-up, or working capital, is the funding needed to help pay for equipment, rent, supplies, etc., for the first year or so of operation.

SEED CAPITAL

The money needed to do initial research and planning for a business.
